

does not need because the secondary market is a major source of new lending resources as well as a $200 million dollar revenue stream to the Treasury.

Madam Chair, I didn't think it was possible to concoct a bill that was even more opaque and unintelligible than the majority's healthcare bill. Well, I was wrong. The majority has succeeded in grand fashion to foist yet another financial disaster in-the-making on the American public, one designed not to ensure stability in the markets, but to make financial markets subject to political intrusion and manipulation. We have seen what political pressure to expand access to credit to those whose incomes would not normally have qualified them for a mortgage did to the housing market. Let's not make this same mistake with veterans. In summary, the VA loan guaranty program has been well-managed and does not need the regulation and supervision under H.R. 4173 would allow.

I urge all of my colleagues to oppose H.R. 4173 and I yield back.

ALLEGHANY COUNTY RESIDENTS
HONORED BY NORTH CAROLINA
HISTORICAL SOCIETY FOR SES-
QUICENTENNIAL CELEBRA-
TIONS—12-10-09

HON. VIRGINIA FOXX

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 11, 2009

Ms. FOXX. Madam Speaker, I rise today to praise the citizens of Alleghany County for recently winning a number of awards from the North Carolina Historical Society for the promotion and production of the celebration of Alleghany's Sesquicentennial.

The Alleghany Historical Genealogical Society and a local business, Imaging Specialists, took home awards for a number of multimedia productions that were used to promote Alleghany's 150th anniversary.

Imaging Specialists also took home the coveted President's Award for the leading role the business took in designing and producing historical projects over the past year.

Local residents Ernest Joines, Janice Alexander, Avin Joines and Jane Furlow each received honors from the state historical society for work ranging from a compilation of local music to a quilt design depicting area scenery.

All told the state Historical Society handed out a dozen different awards to these groups and individuals for the excellence demonstrated in the promotion of Alleghany County's Sesquicentennial events earlier this year. These much-deserved awards were the product of long hours of hard work. I applaud each winner for their dedication to their community and for their vision to produce such a fine celebration of Alleghany County's history.

IN HONOR AND RECOGNITION OF CHARLES BURKE

HON. DENNIS J. KUCINICH

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 11, 2009

Mr. KUCINICH. Madam Speaker, I rise today in honor and recognition of Charlie

Burke upon the occasion of his retirement from Baldwin-Wallace College after nearly fifty years of dedicated teaching, service, and leadership.

Professor Burke taught his first course in American Government and Politics in 1961. Since coming to Baldwin-Wallace in 1970, he has continued to teach and develop the course. He also crafted over a dozen other courses that critically analyze domestic and international politics.

Through both his curricular and extra-curricular leadership positions, Professor Burke was instrumental in making Baldwin-Wallace College an internationally-recognized, liberal-arts institution of higher learning. Equally importantly, Professor Burke demonstrated commitment to students. He connected with and mentored students in order to facilitate learning and leadership in informal ways.

Professor Burke is one of only two students from his high school class to attend college. He also enlisted in the army at age 17 and served in the demilitarized zone in Korea. With help from the GI Bill, Professor Burke studied at Boston University, the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the University of Massachusetts.

Madam Speaker and colleagues, please join me in honor and recognition of Charlie Burke, who has academically and personally helped better the lives of his students.

TRIBUTE TO SERGEANT RICK LAMPE

HON. TOM LATHAM

OF IOWA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 11, 2009

Mr. LATHAM. Madam Speaker, I rise to recognize Sergeant Rick Lampe on the occasion of his retirement from the Iowa State Patrol.

For the last 35 years, Sgt. Lampe has served Iowa faithfully and honorably. He first served four years with the sheriff's office in Waverly, Iowa before serving 31 years with the Iowa State Patrol. In 1979, he began his career with the Iowa State Patrol in Ogden, Iowa, where he plans to enjoy his retirement. Six and a half years ago, Sgt. Lampe was promoted to sergeant. Since 1993, he has provided security for Senator CHUCK GRASSLEY's biannual Ambassador's Tour across Iowa. Sgt. Lampe and his wife, Julie, have raised two sons, Nate and Nick and are blessed with three grandchildren.

Times have certainly changed during Sgt. Lampe's time in the Iowa State Patrol, even in the past ten years. In 1999, Sgt. Lampe's six county district had 47 officers working the area. Today there are only 26 officers working the same area. When he began, patrol officers did not spend significant time in training, but now nearly half of a patrol officer's time is training. There also have been many technological advances such as in-car computers that have helped simplify parts of the job throughout the years.

Sgt. Lampe's bravery and dedication in the Iowa State Patrol goes above and beyond what we are asked of as citizens of this country and has earned him the respect of his peers. I commend Sgt. Rick Lampe for his many years of loyalty and outstanding service in protecting Iowans and serving his community. It has been an immense honor to represent Sgt. Lampe in Congress, and I know that my colleagues in the United States Congress join me in wishing him all the best as he embarks on this new journey.

RECOGNIZING MASTER SERGEANT
ROGER COWART—SCOTTSDALE HEALTHCARE'S "SALUTE TO MILITARY" HONOREE

HON. HARRY E. MITCHELL

OF ARIZONA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, December 11, 2009

Mr. MITCHELL. Madam Speaker, I rise today to recognize a member of the Armed Forces from my home state of Arizona. Each month, Scottsdale Healthcare honors servicemembers who perform diligent service to this country. For the month of December, they have recognized retired Master Sergeant Roger Cowart.

I commend Scottsdale Healthcare for paying tribute to such an outstanding servicemember for his bravery and service to our country.

Mr. Cowart served more than 25 years as a medic in the United States Air Force. He distinguished himself in the performance of outstanding service to the United States in numerous duties, culminating as Flight Chief, Pediatrics, 48th Medical Operations Squadron, 48th Medical Group, 48th Fighter Wing, and Royal Air Force Lakenheath, England.

As an Independent Duty Medical Technician, he provided medical care and practitioner mentoring in the most austere conditions. He is now a member of Scottsdale Healthcare's prestigious Military Training Partnership Team. As the technician for the high-tech simulation lab, he expertly uses his military and medical experience to create realistic trauma training scenarios. This training gives military medical personnel an excellent idea of what to expect when deployed to a war zone and ensures that the men and women who accept the call to duty receive the best care possible.

Madam Speaker, please join me in recognizing this Airman's outstanding contributions and for serving our country and protecting the lives of his fellow service men and women.

SPECIAL AGENT SAMUEL HICKS
FAMILIES OF FALLEN HEROES ACT

SPEECH OF

HON. ANDER CRENSHAW

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, December 8, 2009

Mr. CRENSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I rise in strong support of H.R. 2711, the FBI Families of Fallen Heroes Act. This legislation would ensure the families of our FBI Fallen Heroes are properly cared for and that the final remains of the fallen heroes are treated with the honor and respect they are due. The government would fully fund the transportation and relocation expenses of the immediate family members of FBI employees who have given their lives in the line of duty. This will allow the family members to relocate from their
